See the Cross Mark!

If a cross mark appears on this paper opposite your name, you may know that your subscription has expired, or will with the next issue. If you do not receive the paper after that, it will be because you have not renewed. Look out for it this week!
We must have money to run the business, and cannot let the paper go out without it or its equivalent.

Ho! For the World's Exposition at New Orleans.

The Atlanta Constitution.

In a long article relating to the B.
B. B., of that city, says:
The Blood Balm Company started one year ago with $162.00 but to-day the business cannot be bought for $50,000.00!

The demand and the satisfaction given is said to be without a parallel, as its action is pronounced wonderful.
We are glad to announce that our druggists have already secured a supply, and we hope our readers will supply themselves at once.

It is said to be the only speedy and permanent blood poison remedy offered, giving entire satisfaction in all cases before one bottle has been used.

Vote.

Vote right.

Vote this morning.

Vote for the best men.

Vote in your own home ward.

Business continues brisk this week.

Milan needs a public hall very badly.

We hear of no Christmas trees in prospect.

Almost Christmas and the children are happy.

Leap year is almost gone, girls.
You'd better hurry up.

Milan Normal College is booming, with two buildings full of pupils.

Thursday and Friday were rainy, drizzly, cold, uncomfortable days.

The Methodist preachers living here have returned from conference.

Hardy & Mays have sold their liv-erly outfit to Messrs. Mathis & Lacey.

The colored people will give a concert at the Colored Baptist church on Friday night, the 26th.

Christmas goods in large and magnificent variety have been received by our advertisers. Go to them for bargains.

We understand that the court in Trenton is going for the pistol toters in a most uncomfortable way. Several have been convicted.

Tol Bolling, colored, was kicked by a mule at the residence of Mr. Buck Coleman, near Hope Hill, on Tuesday of last week, breaking his leg.

"Skullbone" ward—ours—has three candidates for Mayor, two for alderman and one or two who want the marshal's office. Out of so much good material, we ought to elect some of them.

A deaf and dumb man named Keel, who lives across the river east of here, brought a ripe watermelon to Tommie Jackson last Tuesday. He saved it until his wife came home, so they could enjoy the rare treat together.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen have a unanimous vote of thanks of "many voters," women and children for the new plank walk laid this week down Railroad Avenue. It is emphatically a "long-felt want" supplied.

John Thomas says a single charge of a shot-gun was fired at a hog at his house a few days since, when sixteen hogs fell. He thinks this true story will trump Irv. Mitchum's fish yarn, and we believe him. He can go up head.

Mr. Keileber has our thanks for a big chunk of Sweitzer cheese, the first we have seen in Milan. It is richer and better than the common cheese, and we would be glad if he could sell enough of it to enable him to keep it regularly.

Mr. W. C. Turner has our thanks for a sack of "Christmas flour," made from a beautiful white Indian corn.
It is as pretty as wheat flour, makes good biscuit and muffins and magnificent batter cakes. The corn was grown by him, and it is certainly very fine.

There is too much fighting of little boys, white and black, on the street.
Two or three have had their heads cut and were otherwise hurt and bruised during the last few days. Let a few of them be locked up a few hours and maybe their street manners will be improved somewhat.

Mr. J. H. Oliver, last Wednesday, killed the biggest owl of the county at his house, six miles southeast of Milan. He measured four feet four inches from tip to tip of his wings and two feet from the end of his beak to the end of his tail. He was a brown color, with horns two inches long.

The colored people have held one or two mass meetings recently for the purpose of devising means to raise money to build an addition to their school house, as it is now entirely too small. A petition is now in circulation asking subscriptions from our citizens for this object, and we have no doubt that it will soon be raised. It is a worthy enterprise, and ought to be encouraged.

Godey's Lady's Book for January is the Prize Story number, containing Mademoiselle's Masquerade, a pretty romance from the pen of Mary E.
Bradley, who won the Two Hundred Dollar Prize in the December competition. The current issue of the Magazine is a remarkably attractive one.
It contains some very useful designs for Christmas tree ornaments, together with instructive articles concerning their manufacture, and giving some new ideas about holiday decorations.
The publishers have also presented every subscriber and buyer of the January number with a beautiful imported Christmas card, and they offer as a premium for 1885, a fine engraving of "Sleeping Love."

Several Marriages.

Rev. J. D. Lewis reports to us the following marriages solemnized by him during the last few days. He says he has had so much feasting that he almost has the gout, but he will now fast awhile, until some one else calls him to tie the matrimonial knot.

Last Sunday night, at the church in Medina, Mr. Sam. T. Barnett and Mrs. Ella West.

Last Wednesday afternoon, near Sharon, Mr. J. W. Thompson and Miss Willie Hilliard.

Last Thursday morning, near Sharon, Mr. Wyatt Overton and Miss Minnie Glass, niece of Hon. P. T.
Glass, our congressman-elect.

The Exchange wishes this trio of couples a merry Christmas and long and happy lives.

City Election.

The municipal election will be held here to-day, when a mayor will be elected and one alderman in each ward. Our announcement column contains the names of all the candidates for mayor, each of whom is a gentleman worthy of support. Two candidates for alderman of the third ward are also announced, and they are both excellent citizens, either of whom will fill the office acceptably.
The marshal will be elected by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, instead of by the people. We hope the voters will select the best men for the different offices, regardless of personal friendship. A town is a business corporation, and we should select such men to manage its affairs as we would in private business.

Sudden Death.

Paddy McAlister, an old and well-known saloon keeper, who has been in business here many years, died suddenly yesterday afternoon of heart disease. He had a slight attack of pneumonia two or three days, but was able to sit up a few minutes before his death. He leaves a wife and three little children, who have the sympathy of the community.

Go and see Crump's Jewelry. It is pretty and good. He sells it cheap.

Good Reliable Scissors.

Keen Cutters, Reliable goods. Ornamental and useful. The ladies' friends are at Tom Harrison's.

Nice Line of Silverware cheap at R. O. CRUMP'S.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Jasper Moore has moved from Gibson to Bradford.

Ex-Gov. James D. Porter passed through here last Wednesday.

"Butch" Williams has returned, after sojourning at Johnsonville two weeks.

Mrs. E. R. Williams and daughter, of McKenzie, are visiting the family of Capt. Williams, at Hope Hill.

Miss Maggie Herron, of Spring Creek, took the train here last Thursday night, en route for Memphis and New Orleans.

Mr. John Shepherd has sufficiently recovered to be able to walk over to town. He has had a long and painful siege since he was crippled and now he feels like a bird out of cage.

Our genial friend Capt. S. H. Hale, present incumbent, is again a candidate for Mayor of Milan. Steve is one of the hardest men to beat in Tennessee and the man who gets away with him will have to get up very early in the morning and be around with the boys in the "wee sma hours." —Jackson Whig.

Conference Appointments.

The Memphis Conference, M. E.
Church, South, which was in session last week in Memphis, made the following appointments for this section:

Paris District.—T. G. Whitten, P.
E.; Paris, G. H. Brooks; McKenzie, J. H. Roberts; Milan, R. M. King; Bradford, O. P. Parker; Trezevant, B. F. Peoples; Medina, W. C. Waters.

W. L. Duckworth is presiding elder of the Jackson district; Guilford Jones goes to the first church in Jackson, with A. L. Britchett as supernumerary; B. F. Blackman, East and West Jackson; J. H. Garrett, Lexington circuit; T. L. Adams, Decatur-ville circuit; Warner Moore, Humboldt; G. W. Wilson, Trenton; B. A.
Hayes, Trenton circuit.

J. H. Evans is presiding elder of the Dyersburg district; M. M. Taylor goes to Alamo and Bells.

The next conference will be held at Paducah.

It seems that there were few changes made, and it is inferred that the people were pleased with their pastors last year. Milan Methodists are pleased that the Bishop returned Bro.
King to this station. He will fill his pulpit to-morrow, as usual.

Mayor and Aldermen.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen last Monday, all the members being present, the following appropriations were made:

Hit Was Never So Intended.

Some pholks do not like phunny harticles in the papers. To the solo-monkolly hinklined I make due hap-ology. Hit has never been intended to mar the pheelins of the old snags.
On the other hand, we are jolly in and out of season, and to the jolly world only are our weekly short episdes dedicated. Tom Harrison never wishes to be misconstrued. All are invited to come in and warm up in body and mind. Nothing like it. We deal only in close and loose-fitting facts and goods of all kinds.

CONCORD NOTES.

Editor Exchange:

Winter has come, and I expect, as the Editor is almost frozen-out in town, that he would like to hear from the country, where we live sumptuously and have plenty of wood.

Most of the farmers who ever have any money have some now, for most all have sold their cotton. A good time to get subscribers to the "Exchange."

The change of weather caused a great many farmers to kill hogs.

There are more birds out here than I ever saw before. The editor is solicitated to come out and take a hunt with us.

My school at Concord is doing well now. We have about sixty-three now present and have enrolled one hundred and five in this term; a great many stopped on account of cotton picking, but will start soon.

I called back my assistant, Miss Lundie McConnell, yesterday. She had been suspended for a while on account of school being small.

We are going to have an examination and exhibition on 23d December, day and night. The editor and all others are invited to attend then.
We expect to have a pleasant time if the weather will permit.

Our debating society will be suspended after next Saturday night until spring. We have had a most pleasant and instructive debate. I think all schools should have a debating society.

Yours respectfully,

W. A. PHILLIPS.

Dec. 2d, 1884.

For the Low in Spirit.

Visit the fountain of youth; see every thing up and down stairs at Tom Harrison's. He is prepared to renew the old-time good feeling of you all.
Holler for Tom Harrison; there is positively no harm in it. He has wonders at his store and a lot of wonderful nice fellows to try to please you all. Never fail to go there.

Biggest Thing of the Season.

W. B. WILLIAMS has caught a drummer who needed money and bought his samples at 50 per cent. under Jobbers' prices—such goods as Net Underwear, Shawls, Suspenders, Gloves, Hosiery, etc., too many things to mention. He proposes to give the trade the advantage of these low wholesale prices. Come quick and secure the first bargains. You can buy these goods as cheap as any merchant in town bought them. They will kick, but go and secure your bargains and save 25 to 50 per cent.
E. N. Stone, Banks Adams, W. N.
Trimble and Jim Fite especially request their friends to call and see the immense bargains they are offering in the samples bought and mentioned above. This is no patent ad.

Prickly Ash Bitters is an unfailing specific for all complaints arising from a derangement of the functions of the Liver. It purifies the blood and in-fuses new life into the invalid. Pains in the side, general uneasiness, loss of appetite, headache, bilious attacks, &c., &c., are sure indications that a corrective is needed. Prickly Ash Bitters is especially adapted for these complaints. It arouses a torpid liver to action and restores it to a healthy condition.

Through Sleeping Car to Sioux City, Io.

The Illinois Central R. R. will run a through sleeping car to Decatur, Bloomington, Mendota and Freeport, Ill., and Dubuque, Manchester, Waterloo, Ft. Dodge and Sioux City, Iowa, leaving Milan at 12.13 p.m.
Friday of each week. Through passengers for points in Northern Illinois, Northwestern Iowa and Southern Minnesota will appreciate the advantage of this weekly through sleeper from New Orleans to Sioux City.
